

I walked through deserted streets
Haunted by forgotten dreams
Driven by what's out of reach
Wasted all my love
My genetic makeup
Nothing was all I ever got

How far do I have to go
To see the starlit sky in this sea of lights?
How far do I have to go
To re-ignite the flame that brightened my insides?
I'll go as far as my feet carry me
Don't want no rest
Don't need no sleep

Drained my cup of sorrow to the dregs
Learned to love everything I detest
Countless crimes I had to confess
I slept my way up
Put off Lady Luck
Nothing was all I ever got

How far do I have to go
To see the starlit sky in this sea of lights?
How far do I have to go
To re-ignite the flame that brightened my insides?
I'll go as far as my feet carry me
Don't want no rest
Don't need no sleep
I keep on moving to the beat
