

Who Am I

De/Vision

Stuck in constant repetition
I won't take it anymore
Don't count on my indecision
Not this time that's for sure

Don't push me
Over the edge
I'm trying
To keep my head
I know there once was a time where I wanted
I wanted you

Who would assume
That a person could be so cruel
And bring out the worst in me
Why don't you understand
That's not who I am

Once more we're the main attraction
A ? around our neighbourhood
By triggering a chain reaction
I'd move out if I could

You want to be in control
I need to be left alone
You say there once was a time when I needed
I needed you

Who would assume
That a person could be so cruel
And bring out the worst in me
Why don't you understand
That's not who I am

I won't retreat
Nor will I accept defeat
I'll do whatever it takes
To make you understand
Who I really am
