

Ragman

Deacon Blue

Offered her a roof
The rain had made it shine
Offered her a song
Wasn't really mine

I showed her all my things
She offered me belongings
She thought I was a ragman

She offered me possessions
I tied them in a knot
Wrapped it in a note
Kept it in my pocket

I showed her all my things
She offered me belongings
She thought I was a ragman
I came to her too soon
She should have had a ragdoll
And wound up with a ragman

Wing and kites and wedding rings
All these charms I said I'd bring

I showed her all my things
She offered me belongings
She thought I was a ragman
Baby you're a rich man
Lost in a small world
Looking for a ragdoll
Wound up with a ragman
With a ragman
Ragman
