

i'm trying to find a way
so i can keep on searching for my own space hoping to see the signs
holding an open door
wish i could walk on past it, i want more hoping to see the right way there's always something so i know when the end is with or without this, feels like it's all just a game you're standing there, i see a solution you are the problem, should i go or stay?

trying to find a way so i can move on and walk past open doors

there's always something so i know when the end is with or without the effect, i'm a casualty you're standing there, i see a solution am i the problem? should i go or stay yes i'm trying to find a way

so i can keep on searching for my own space
hoping to see the signs
hoping to feel the right way this time i swear i'm gonna speak my mind i would hold it, i could just pretend

yeah i just wanna speak my mind i just wanna speak my mind!

hoping to see the signs
i see you there standing, was that where it's standing? i see too many open doors wish i could walk on past them, i want more

yes i'm trying to find my way
