

Cost Of A Good Impression

Dead To Fall

I saw the fire that once stirred in your heart Become extinguished by good intentions and impressions You made your choice and now you wish you could go back
You made you choice and now you can't go back Everyday you commit suicide
Destroying your self worth
I refuse to feel sympathy for your life, of not caring and bad decisions
Now you feel the pain
You have cast upon yourself
