Deals Death

A secret kept hidden
All questions forbidden for life
All knowledge dissolving
A quest for a merciless death

Their victims are crawling
As missiles are falling like rain
With hope gone, forsaken
With one blow they're taken away

We are blinded by a curtain of insanity
Time will tell when we will realize, realize it
The world has come to an end
Deserted civilisation
There will be nothing left
We are forced to collapse

Commotion, disorder
The ravaged existence of mankind is everyones legacy
A world left in ruins, it's everyones blame

We are blinded by a curtain of insanity
Time will tell when we will realize, realize it
The world has come to an end
Deserted civilisation
There will be nothing left
We are forced to collapse

We are blinded by a curtain of insanity
Time will tell when we will realize, realize it
The world has come to an end
Deserted civilisation
There will be nothing left
We are forced to collapse
