

Good Goodbye

Dean Brody

One more night in Tulum, we checked out of our rooms
We catch the red eye home tonight
Now we're stuck in the lobby with an open bar
7 hours until our flight, hey now

Everybody calm down I think I know what we can do
Before a long goodbye like this there's 3 steps to help us through

Step 1, raise it up
Step 2, tilt it back
Step 3, go on, repeat
Steps 1, 2, a 1, 2, 3
Just one more margarita, pretty señorita
'Cause we gotta kill some time
Leaving Mexico, getting loco
With one hell of a good goodbye

We know leaving vaycay is the hardest part
With that boss man waiting at work
But don't think of that now, here's a Jell-O shot round
Think it's time we take off our shirts

I could think of worse places to waste some time
Stuck here in paradise with my friends for one more night

Step 1, raise it up
Step 2, tilt it back
Step 3, go on, repeat
Steps 1, 2, a 1, 2, 3
Just one more margarita, pretty señorita
'Cause we gotta kill some time
Leaving Mexico, getting loco
With one hell of a good goodbye (come on)

Those home bound flights you can hear a pin drop (oh-oh-oh)
They're somber as a church on a Monday morn (oh-oh-oh)
But tonight that return flight's gonna take a departure, oh it is (oh-oh-oh)
When our party of 9 walks on board

Step 1, raise it up
Step 2, tilt it back
Step 3, come on, repeat
Steps 1, 2, everybody here we go (A 1, 2, 3)

Step 1, raise it up
Step 2, tilt it back
Step 3, go on, repeat
Steps 1, 2, a 1, 2, 3
Just one more margarita, pretty señorita
'Cause we gotta kill some time
Leaving Mexico, getting loco
With one hell of a good goodbye
