

Please Go to Heaven Now

Death By Stereo

Just like a fucking fix
Can't get enough of it
You feed on the meek
Not me

NEVER

I will fight the ride
I will annihilate your kind
You're not going to take me down

NEVER

Your god of infinite greed
Exorbitant trinity
Truth be told, I'll never know
What happened to your heart?
What happened to your soul?
I don't think I'll ever learn
How did you lose your heart?
I hope you fucking burn

Watch as your virgin bleeds
Harlot catastrophe
Kneel down before your wealth
Not me

NEVER

A church that's built from gold
A church of guilt you've sold
A conflict of interest wouldn't you say?

LIAR

The father, son, holy ghost
Which one will cost you the most?
If heaven is for the rich
I'll dig my blasphemous ditch

Your god of infinite greed
Exorbitant trinity
Truth be told, I'll never know
What happened to your heart?
What happened to your soul?
I don't think I'll ever learn
How did you lose your heart?
I hope you fucking burn

BURN
