Lustmord

Deeds of Flesh

This feeling won't leave me I need to relieve thee By maiming and killing this bitch In total secrecy From some dark place In my soul comes a new Realm of depravity Like a beast I overcome her and utterly destroy her

For I must surrender To my feelings of anger Hurting her Derived intense erotic pleasure

Playing inside brings a new high A paradise from which I can't hide

This feeling won't leave me I need to relieve thee By maiming and killing this bitch In total secrecy

She suffers beautifully As I rip and cut her internally I know she still loves me She was my wife
