

Wait a minute, wake up
I am here
I closed my eyes to realize how far I've come
You can't feel, you can't see me

Wait a minute, wake up
I am here
I'm running out of options
How to present my thought's, my feelings
Without igniting you
Would you smile if I closed my mind
Never question your integrity
No, I'm not criticizing you
You can't see, you can't hear me

Wait a minute, wake up
I am here
Breathing
