

Lay Your Hands

Deep Insight

Lay your hands on me
Nothing ever changes
Always on the run

I'm here in the middle of thousands
Thousands of waves
They're bigger than me
How can I resist their power?
How can I resist the sun?
I'm burning

Lay your hands on me
Nothing ever changes
Always on the run

I can still taste the salt in the air
But now it's everywhere
They're bigger than me
How can I resist their power?
How can I resist the sun
I'm burning
