

One minute too late

Deep Insight

Today I woke up before the sun came up
Had a tea from a cup that said "I love you"
I know I'm late, but I'll catch up
Someday I will

Somewhere, somehow
One minute too late
'Cause now you're gone away
(Now she's gone away)

Somewhere, somehow
One minute too late
'Cause now you're gone away

Today I wrote a song a for you
Had it done before you left your goodbyes
I know it's late but I will wake up
(Honey I promise you)
Someday I will

Somewhere, somehow
One minute too late
'Cause now you're gone away
(Now she's gone away)

Somewhere, somehow
One minute too late
'Cause now you're gone away

Somewhere, somehow
One minute too late
'Cause now you're gone away
(Now she's gone away)

One last good night
One moment too soon
You sent yourself away

I felt alive one moment in time
I'll sing these songs you left behind
I felt alive one moment in time
