

Sucker for love

Deep Insight

My heart is a sucker for love
It keeps promising more
It keeps leaving me with nothing
My life as a wannabe
It's not always perfect
But I like it a lot

Time after time I question myself
Why do I find nothing
Time after time
So I keep asking how can I change
But the answer remains
Time after time

My heart is wild and free
Because it's easier to be
I know it's too late to change
Because it's easier to be

My heart is a black box
I'll do the aftermath
I'll survive the crash
My life in a nutshell
I'm crazy enough
Not to worry about tomorrow

Time after time I question myself
Why do I find nothing
Time after time
So I keep asking how can I change
But the answer remains
Time after time

Time after time I question myself
Why do I find nothing
Time after time
So I keep asking how can I change
But the answer remains
Time after time
