

Blind Faith

Def Leppard

Is it really all a matter of trust
Is it really all a matter of time
Can I read the truth between the lines
Or is this just enough to believe?

Can you show me why I need to forgive
Can you tell me I have a reason to live
Are your words enough to heal my wounds
Or are they just enough to deceive?

Maybe we need tomorrow
Whatever I need I'll borrow
Wherever you lead I'll follow
I'll follow you down

Did I say enough for dreams to survive
Is my faith enough to keep them alive
Did I pray enough and did you hear
Or were they just enough to get by?

Will you show me where the love begins
Will you wash away all of my sins
Will you say the words I need to hear?
They might just be enough to believe

Faith hope and glory
It doesn't come around here no more
Faith hope and glory
But still you've got to believe
