

Propelled Into Sacrilege

Defeated Sanity

Terrestrial metamorphosis
Liquefying frozen monoliths
Decimating immaculate hunting grounds
Sovereign domain melting away

Inches beneath the frigid waterline
The glacial tyrant lurking
Eyes like darkened spheres
Indifferent to the infliction of torment

Pulverizing might erupting from its body
As prey is ripped to shreds
Prevail, Preserve
Carving a path unburdened by weakness
All in his midst indiscriminately brutalized

Inhabitants of a dying world
Constantly subject to nature's endless scrutiny
The amphibious beast, subjugator of the feeble
Disrupting idyllic existence

Spine broken through the throat
Skull splinters heinously within his jaws
Innards spread across the ice

Redundant posthumous violation

Bestial vigor awoken through hunger
Unhinged by oppressive famine
Desperation festering
Spawning acts so hideously vile...

In destitution, ego is defiled
As kindred offspring are torn apart
Pale monotony strewn with
Crimson, infantile spewings
Devastated mother is stripped of her kin
Wandering this barren land in mourning
Victim and culprit eventually exposed to the same fate

Apex predator deprived of prey
Succumbing to starvation
Wasting away...

Inhabitant of a dying world
Constantly subject to nature's endless scrutiny
Once amphibious beast, rotting with the feeble
Dominance subliminally erased
