

Deadly Intentions

Defiance

My life seemed so perfect
Until that one night
When the anger grew inside me
And the moon lost its light

Now I find myself with
An uncontrollable need
To kill my victim slowly
So I can hear her plea

Deadly intentions
Is all my mind cries out
Deadly intentions
Wanting to kill without a doubt

By some stroke of luck
I escaped possession
God above convinced me
That it was only a lesson
Always to be second
And waiting to be nexted
I was never good enough
For her love and her sex

Deadly intentions
Is all my mind cries out
Deadly intentions
Wanting to kill without a doubt

Now that you will listen
Look deep into my eyes
I've been drained of feeling
And I'll tell you why
I have gave her flowers
And all I could afford
Only to discover
She's just a f*cking whore

Deadly intentions
Is all my mind cries out
Deadly intentions
Wanting to kill without a doubt

Dare to play the game
Watch her plan unfold
She knows you will give up
Your body and your soul
You give up all your morals
Your conscience and your heart
Then you will be trapped
Till death do us part
