Apocalyptic Fear

Deicide

Wage war with your threats of the lord Retaliation, attack
Full force of the war machine
You think you hear him calling you back
Kick down the blessed doors to god
We got some killing to do
Scramble little lambs you run
The Devil is coming for you

Intervention, the retreat has begun Although you're all about to be dead You in the front, the first to go I think it was in something you said

You claim to be the son Your pain for everyone To heaven disappear Apocalyptic fear

Perfect the method for an untimely death The horror you're about to receive Firestorm, incinerator engaged You want the sacrifice to be seen Consequences for your misuse of god Without the final seal, you are through Convinced of what has to be done The end to desperation for you

Insist it's the only way out
The only chance you have to be free
Defend your impeccable lord
Provide you with a passage to leave
