

Incomplete

Deitrick Haddon

Have you ever heard a symphony you feel the music racing through your veins but imagine it without the strings what would it be incomplete Imagine the perfect melody
The one that sweeps you off your feet now imagine it without the beat what would it be Incomplete
that was me
Oh oh oh oh
Can you imagine life without death Or picture right without left sand and bones without breath That's all we'll be incomplete
If he never sent his son to save us what if he never forgave us or never loved a sinner like me all we'll be is Incomplete
That was me
Oh oh oh oh
Broken down I came to you you took my heart and made it new broke the chains that bonded me gave me life and now I am complete Now I am complete
Incomplete
that was me
Incomplete
that was me
Oh oh oh oh
We're incomplete without you
Oh oh oh oh
We're incomplete without you
