

Stand Still

Deitrick Haddon

Stand still and know that He is God;
and there's no need to fight,
the battle is not yours,
the battle is the Lord's.

There is trouble at every sight,
so bad you wanna run and hide.
Your enemy is out for you and you don't know why.
It takes all your strength
to hold back your tears,
but you know you gotta face your fears,
let me whisper a word softly in your ears.

Stand still and know that He is God;
and there's no need to fight,
the battle is not yours,
the battle is the Lord's.

Your enemies don't know what they will do when they declare war on you.
Don't you think by know they would have figure out the Lord will always see you through.
There ain't no reason to live in doubt,
God has already worked it out;
so stand back and move out of His way,
'cause He will bring a brighter day.

Stand still and know that He is God;
and there's no need to fight,
the battle is not yours,
the battle is the Lord's.
