

Go Slowly

Delays

Regard these flames, for what they are
A blessed reign, a brand new start
Make all we are through somedays
Upright this plane, and shake the tower

Just walk away, and let the spirit break
If only just to prove them wrong
Just walk away, ignore the rising quake
And make it past the room because

Coz we can jump feet first
From the earth to the sky, and we can
Go slowly, go slowly
Into the dark, you're a spark
You beguile, we can
Go slowly. Go slow

Corrupted heart, with two mad eyes
It's safe to laugh, it's safe to cry
We can't divide this shadow
Just walk away, and let the spirit break
If only just to prove them wrong
Just walk away, ignore the double takes
And make it past the room because
Coz we can jump feet first
From the earth to the sky, and we can
Go slowly, go slowly
In to the dark you're a spark
You beguile, we can
Go slowly. Go slow

Cos we can jump feet first
From the earth to the sky, and we can
Go slowly, go slowly
In to the dark, your a spark
Your a liar, we can
Go slowly, go slowly
Go slowly, go slowly
Go slowly, go slowly
Go slowly, go slow
