

Midnight Communion

Delbert McClinton

Down at the neon angel beneath
A flashing star
A rag tag congregation is Gathered at the bar
Searching for salvation for
Just an hour or two
While the jukebox in the corner
Plays the blues

It's midnight communion
Down on Second Avenue
They take the wine 'til closing time
A fellowship of fools
Confessions heard, forgiveness given
From twelve o'clock 'til two
midnight communion
Down on Second Avenue

There's one old fallen angel who's Lost the will to fly
But her broken wings still have the Strength to hold you when you cry
Lord knows it's not the best place to Lay my burdens down
But someone's always good for
One more round

It's midnight communion
Down on Second Avenue
They take the wine 'til closing time
A fellowship of fools
Confessions heard, forgiveness given
From twelve o'clock till two
Midnight communion
Down on Second Avenue
