

Love Falls Down

Delirious?

Yes, I'm living for today
When our dreams won't go away
And the promise that you gave
To see the earth resound with praise
And I believe it's time to change
And yes I need Your hand to break these chains
And love falls down on me
Love falls down on me
Yes, we're going all the way
Tomorrows dreams are here today
I feel the joy beneath my feet
Will it be long before we meet
And I believe my heart has found
All the good that comes from God above
And love falls down on me
Love falls down on me
When Heaven opens love will come
And will roll like a river
Yeah, love falls down.
