

Last Words

Delta Rae

I'm gonna leave in the morning
I won't leave you in the dark
Lying in the sheets our love was born in
'Til it closed its eyes in our arms

Let's lay it down in a garden of stone
Cover it softly with dirt
Songs have been sung and the final rose thrown
Darlin' I'll be the first to say our last words

You think I'm sleeping beside you
I've never been more awake
Listening to the thunder and wishing you were someone I could l ie to
Knowing that your heart's gonna break

Let's lay it down in a garden of stone
Cover it softly with dirt
Songs have been sung and the final rose thrown
Darlin' I'll be the first to say our last words
To say our last words

Let's lay it down in a garden of stone
Cover it softly with dirt
Songs have been sung and the final rose thrown
Darlin' I'll be the first to say our last words
To say our last words
