

Ooh Caroline

Delta Rae

Last night I thought I heard the screen door slam and I thought about it

You'd run away and break my heart again, so I'm moving on
And driving downtown to a bottle and flashing lights
Where I'll meet a nice girl, she'll invite me to come inside

And she'll ask me, she'll ask me, she'll ask if I'm alright
But I'm not

Ooh, ooh, Caroline, keep leaving back doors in my mind
It's all the time and I can't keep waiting for ya
Ooh, ooh, Caroline, make something better hard to find
It's all the time and I can't keep waiting for ya

No, no, no

Five years ago, I thought I found my wife
And I still believe it
But my time with you has been an uphill climb
Like when you hike your skirt up when you're standing in a serv ice line
Or how your ring slips off after one too many glasses of wine

And you ask me, you ask me, you ask me to be kind
When I say,

Ooh, ooh, Caroline, keep leaving back doors in my mind
It's all the time and I can't keep waiting for ya
Ooh, ooh, Caroline, make something better hard to find
It's all the time and I can't keep waiting for ya

And all the days I spent in Georgia
And all the guys I fought off for ya
Just to hold your hand
Without a back-up plan
For when a better man comes calling
And I'll say,

Ooh, ooh, Caroline, keep leaving back doors in my mind
It's all the time and I can't keep waiting for ya
Ooh, ooh, Caroline, make something better hard to find
It's all the time and I can't keep waiting for ya
Ooh, ooh, Caroline, and I can't keep waiting for ya
Ooh, ooh, Caroline, and I can't keep waiting for ya
Cause it's all the time, and I can't keep waiting for ya
