

Soft Place To Land

Delta Rae

Don't be afraid to find love
It ain't a weight, it's just enough
Don't be cruel, don't be mean
I want you to want me

'Cause even a strong man
Needs a soft place to land
Even the oceans come back to the sand
And even a quick shot gotta find a cool hand
Even a strong man needs a soft place to land

You take care of yourself
Don't ask nothing off nobody else
But when the going gets tough even the tough guys need help
I just wanna hold you like you've never been held

'Cause even a strong man
Needs a soft place to land
Even the oceans come back to the sand
Even a quick shot gotta find a cool hand
Even a strong man needs a soft place to land

I ain't trying to slow you up
I don't wanna hold you down
I just wanna have your back
Baby, when you hold your ground
I know you're the loyal kind
You know how to treat a girl
But even a fierce woman, baby
Wants to find love in this world

And even a strong man
Needs a soft place to land
Even the oceans come back to the sand
And even a quick shot gotta find a cool hand
Even a strong man needs a soft place to land
Even a strong man needs a soft place to land

(Even a strong man)
Don't be afraid to find love
(Even a strong man)
Don't be afraid to find love, no
(Even a strong man)
Don't be afraid to find love
(Even a strong man)
Don't be afraid to find love
(Even a strong man)
Don't be afraid to find love
(Even a strong man)
Don't be afraid to find love
