

The Beast

Delta Rae

Cats' eyes shining in the darkness
Can't see nothing when the world ends
Birds flying off into chaos
Crying their name into the whirlwind

See, I'm still walking that same road
Ain't nothing changed, 'cause I already know
The Lord's gonna come and she ain't pleased
She ain't suffering fools no more

Meet me at the edge
I ain't afraid
Lord I've already fallen
See the beast sitting on the ridge
No time to waste
Let him know that we're coming

Snake skin shed under dead leaves
Old rattle looks like angel wings
Lights coming on but slowly
Pulling back the curtain on the reckoning

See, I'm still walking at witching hour
Burning sweet sage, I pulled the tower
Truth's coming out of her deep well
She ain't suffering lies no more

Meet me at the edge
I ain't afraid
Lord I've already fallen
See the beast sitting on the ridge
No time to waste
Let him know that we're coming

Meet me at the edge
I've already fallen
I ain't afraid
Let him know that we're coming
