

I'm walking, immortal
Across the ashes of forests
And ruins of worlds
I'm white man's brother
And devil's brother-in-law

I shall go, wherever life takes me
I shall go, whoever may try me
I shall go, whoever design I am
I shall go, whenever fate strikes me
I shall go

I'll be roaming, endless
Blazing like sun, scorching
What the mankind has sown
Watch me feed on your corpses
I think and therefore I am

I shall go, wherever life takes me
I shall go, whoever may try me
I shall go, whoever design I am
I shall go, whenever fate strikes me
I shall go
