

Sorry

Demis Roussos

Whispering, you know I saw you were whispering
Listening, you didn't think I was listening
I've got the right thing all wrong again once again
I heard you never feeling

Answer me, I know you won't even answer me
After me, I know you won't hurry after me
If you feel that it has to be, ask for me
You can't be sure of our feeling

Don't fall apart or lose your heart
You are far away, is it clear when I say

Sorry for saying the things that I said
Sorry for starting it all
All I can say is sorry to you
And kissed your lips to tell you I love you
Sorry for saying the things that I said
Sorry for starting it all
All I can say is sorry to you
And kissed your lips to tell you I love you

Yesterday we had a very last chance yesterday
Yesterday it was our very last chance yesterday
I spend the wheel and am fast away
Far away I don't know where but somewhere

Don't fall apart or lose your heart
You are far away is it clear when I say

Sorry for saying the thing that I said
Sorry for starting it all
All I can say is sorry to you
And kissed your lips to tell you I love you
Sorry for saying the thing I that said, ooh...
