

Velvet Mornings

Demis Roussos

Velvet mornings will come every new day
Golden sunrise and the scent of rain
Whisper softly a melody of love words
In ecstasy as you lie sleeping close to me

Velvet mornings welcome every new day
Golden sun rays and the scent of rain
Whisper softly a melody of love words
In ecstasy as you lie so very close to me.

Velvet mornings gently touching my face
Come and find me in your warm embrace
As you wake up and smile to me you make real
My reverie and I know my day begins and ends with you
