I'm coming home, now the waiting is all over Can't find the words to tell you
How I feel for you tonight
A cold wind blows
But inside I feel a warm glow
I hold a pen in trembling hands
A stranger in a foreign land

Now I've found what I'm searching for What we have means so much more Tell them all that I'm coming home Keep the candle burning brightly Now I've found what I'm searching for Every day oh I miss you more Tell them all that I'm coming home

I'm coming home
To the mountains and the valleys
The cobbled streets
Where the boy became a man and learned to love
I hear your voice
Speaking softly in the morning
I see you lying next to me
Let the moment last forever more

Now I've found what I'm searching for What we have means so much more Tell them all that I'm coming home Keep the candle burning brightly Now I've found what I'm searching for Every day oh I miss you more Tell them all that I'm coming home

Oh, I know so much has changed In our hearts I'm sure What we've been through Will make us strong again

Now I've found what I'm searching for What we have means so much more Tell them all that I'm coming home Keep the candle burning brightly Now I've found what I'm searching for Every day oh I miss you more Tell them all that I'm coming home tonight
