Find a Goal

DemonLord

Days passing by I am drinking my beer In the bar where I'm always Spending my time

The months passing by I'm searching for joy And I live for the moment, and Enjoy the night

Never had the will to be strong Never had the chance to be found I only wish to make plans

God, shake me out of my sleep Move me out of this slump Give me the power to act And make me

Find a goal To be able to struggle for Find a goal To give sense to my life Find a goal What am I waiting for Find a goal No more wasting my time

The years passing by Lately nothing have happened Just waiting for someone And losing the time
