

Handwriting On The Wall

Dennis Brown

Woah yoi, woah yoi, yeah
Oh oh oh hey oi
Have you read your newspapers lately
Looks like mankind has surely gone crazy
Making bombs that leave buildings but kill babies
Believe in the Book of Revelations
And just like in the days of old
Just like in the days of old
Things are going down the way they're told
Handwriting's on the wall
Signs are clear, they're telling us all
Handwriting's on the wall, yeaah
Signs are clear, they're telling us all
Well
Woah ah why
False prophets are plenty
Preaching lies to the few and the many (many, many, many)
Even the changes of the seasons
Bring disaster and destruction for a reason
And just like in the days of old
Just like in the days of old
Things are going down the way they're told
Handwriting's on the wall
Signs are clear, they're telling us all
Handwriting's on the wall
Signs are clear, they're telling us all
Well, yeah, yeah
Woah yeah, well, well yeah well, uuhn
Woah woah, yeah, well, well yeah well, uuhn, uuhn, woah, woah
Have you read your newspapers lately
Looks like mankind has surely gone crazy (crazy, crazy, crazy!)
Making bombs that leave buildings but kill babies
Believe in the Book of Revelations
As just like in the days of old
Just like in the days of old
Things are going down the way they're told
Handwriting's on the wall
Signs are clear, they're telling us all
Handwriting's on the wall, well
Signs are clear, they're telling us all
Handwriting's on the wall, yeah, yeah.
