

Cut You Out

Depswa

I should have noticed something different had become of you
As you distanced yourself apart from me
And the more I seem to find you always slipping through the shadows
The more I realize that nothing's what it seems

When you lie to me
I'll cut a piece out of me
When you steal from me
I'll cut a bit more
When you cheat on me
I'll try to put myself back together as you're laughing at the pieces on the floor

I'll cut you out, cut you out of me
That piece of me just isn't me anymore
Cut you out, cut you out of me
Before you disease and corrupt my will to go on

Deception seems to be a better a part of you
Cause every moment now he falls into a scene
And the more I seem to find you always slipping through the shadows
The more I realize the truth and what it means

When you lie to me
I'll cut a piece out of me
When you steal from me
I'll cut a bit more
When you cheat on me
I'll try to put myself back together as you're laughing at the pieces on the floor

I'll cut you out, cut you out of me
That piece of me just isn't me anymore
Cut you out, cut you out of me
Before you disease and corrupt my will to go on

And once in a dream I had someone, someone to love
And then as it goes through the darkness

You corrupted every part of me
You've darkened deep inside of me
You kill the weakened piece of me
Must reach deep inside and pull it out
You corrupted every part of me
You've darkened deep inside of me
You kill the weakened piece of me
Must reach deep inside!

Cut you out, cut you out of me
That piece of me just isn't me anymore
Cut you out, cut you out of me
Before you disease and corrupt my will

Cut you out, cut you out of me
That piece of me just isn't me anymore
Cut you out, cut you out of me
Before you disease and corrupt my will to go on
