

The Way I Am

Depswa

I'm not a sinner nor a saint, I guess I'm everything you ain't
And that's supposed to mean a damn thing to me
And if you think I need advice
You'd better stop and think twice
Because you've mistaken me for someone who cares

Yeah that's the way I am
If you give me some lip you know
You're gonna get back some shit you know
Nobody ever showed me how
And if this country's still free
Then I will be all I can be without advice

I'm not one for fashion or the latest stupid trend
It doesn't bother me if I'm out of style
Cause what I might call fun
Is to drink and shoot guns
And maybe pick on my guitar for a while

Sometimes I wonder what it's like to be behind those beady eyes
. (It's just an ego driven temporary high)
What makes you believe you're so much better than the average t elling lies
(Go tell your lies to someone else)
And if you share your opinion
I warn you now you gotta be prepared, 'cause I'm good with who I am and I don't give a damn.
So don't waste your time, here's a dime, go call someone, 'caus e I don't fuckin' care!

I don't want your advice
You can take your advice
And stick it up your ass!
