

Destiny Never Awaits

Derdian

Living lonely
Time is passing slowly
And your mind will fall into
An unreal place

Where the feelings
Get a lot of meanings
And you'll start believing
In your own face

So you go on
To be more strong
Convert your failures in a new good song
Keeping your dreams along

And the time will come
To show who you are
Set aside your fears to go so far
'Cause your life is one
And you need to take every chance
To get your reward in advance
Fighting with your faith
Will be not too late
Try believing in yourself and
Never think to fail
Or your dreams could fly out away
'Cause destiny never awaits

Like everyone
You're surviving but you feel is not enough
So play your cards and make your destiny now

And the time will come
To show who you are
Set aside your fears to go so far
'Cause your life is one
And you need to take every chance
To get your reward in advance
Fighting with your faith
Will be not too late
Try believing in yourself and
Never think to fail
Or your dreams could fly out away
'Cause destiny never awaits
