

Drunk On Your Kisses

Des'ree

Life can be lonely, cold and so empty
Waiting for night time to turn in to day
Then you came a knocking, I decided to answer
Handsome and lovely, you swept me away

I was drunk on your kisses, cause they were so sweet
The only thing missing was what I believed
I was so glad I found you; you were just what I needed
Drunk on your kisses, sipping your love

You were intoxicating (oh my), I was intoxicated (am I)

Out of my power, showing a face
The lesson was painful (oh my), for that I'm now grateful (am I
)
Life is for learning, we all make mistakes

I was drunk on your kisses, cause they were so sweet
The only thing missing was what I believed
I was so glad I found you; you were just what I needed
Drunk on your kisses, sipping your love

You rescued me
You rescued me
You rescued me
You rescued me
