

As The Deadworld Calls

Desaster

Blood runs over my body
As the deadworld calls to me
Tears are lost
As the journey begins
As the daylight turns to dark
I will kiss the dead
And he overcomes my body
To take me in his arms

As the deadworld calls
In the ancient way
Twilight is surrounding me
I take the knife to watch the blood
Flowing endless

Black is all our heaven
Only the moonlight licks the dark
Into this hour of deepest sorrow
Breaks a reign of endless pain
Minutes become hours
Angels sing black songs
I have seen the world

As the deadworld calls
In the ancient way
Twilight is surrounding me
I take the knife to watch the blood
Flowing endless

(I) see in this lonely dream
Alone the god on the wall
Feelings are lost
In a cover of frost
As the bells will chime for me
The deadworld speaks to me
Here I drift in horror
The dead's world to see

As the deadworld calls
In the ancient way
Twilight is surrounding me
I take the knife to watch the blood
Flowing endless
