Phantom Funeral

Are you afraid? Deny the poison The whispering silence is at hand Voice of life's morality Beyond all boundaries of fate

Eternal death wish from above Including life's of few belongings The sentence of a world apart The essence of their sheltered hearts

Phantom funeral Pestilent ways of salvation

Way the crown of all life's end Praised in centuries to come To speak the fears to bring hell's plague Only hope won't be enough

Or is it nothingness to fear Destiny until the end The sentence of a world apart The essence of their sheltered hearts

Phantom funeral Pestilent ways of salvation

Graves wide opet, speeches low Horny priests welcum on sorrow Blackest feast of Bion's seed Unspoken sickness of a broken elite

Bound by sin trapped in sorrow Reign of fear blind death tomorrow Wishing hell for the sheltered breed Eternally their souls to bleed

Graves wide opet, speeches low Horny priests welcum on sorrow Blackest feast of Bion's seed Unspoken sickness of a broken elite

Graves Priests Fear Sorrow
