

Witchcraft

Desaster

The witches are dancing around the fire
The day awaited is finally here now they can fell their holy desire
And dinner time is coming near

Witchcraft!!!
Witchcraft!!
Witchcraft!

The wizard is preparing the magic potion
The magic circle is coming together
The air is full of black entchantment
The Magic forumula is spoke now

At dawn the midnight party is over
The witches are seting out home
Back to the forests of dead and darkness
Waiting for the next party of hell
