

Scream If You're Crazy

Destroy Rebuild Until God Shows

Whoa-oa-oa, yeah-eahhhh.
The world was wrong this time.
My voice is strong inside,
my voice is strong.

When you aren't here with me,
I start talking to myself.
I wake from my dreams,
to find the world asleep,
to find the world asleep.
Try to turn down the thinking,
cuz it won't stop,
speeding my heart beat.
I wake from my nightmares,
my sick dreams,
strangled by my screams.

I think I'm going crazy, crazy.
It seems I've lost my mind.
If I'm the asylum,
the patients are dying,
the patients are dying.
You're outta you're fucking mind!

Whoa-oa-oa, yeah-eahhhh.
The world was wrong this time.
My voice is strong inside,
my voice is strong. [x2]

I'm not sure that I believe you.
But I do believe,
that somewhere in my life,
there's a bit of happiness,
with a loneliness,
hidden in the grace.
And I'm always,
swinging from the lights,
swinging from the lights,
but you don't seem to notice.
Know the brightest stars burn fastest,
even in the darkest day.

I think I'm going crazy, crazy.
It seems I've lost my mind.
If I'm the asylum,
the patients are dying,
the patients are dying.
You're outta you're fucking mind!

Whoa-oa-oa, yeah-eahhhh.
The world was wrong this time.
My voice is strong inside,
my voice is strong. [x2]

[Instrumental]

Scream if you're crazyyyy!!!

Scream, fucking scream!

The inmates, are running the show! [x4]

Whoa-oa-oa, yeah-eahhhh.

The world was wrong this time.

My voice is strong inside,

my voice is strong. [x3]
