

Beneath the Bleeding Sky

Desultory

Inside this storm we cannot breathe the sheltered peace is deceptive
Revert to silence when no one dares to speak
Just a breath away - we are choking

In this dark premonition - it is all out of hand
Uprising of fear when the savior is dying

Another day will dawn upon the ones who feel this tension
This fear will feed us all until we choke on this intimidation

Still inside the storm
Watch you try to heal - it's fragile
One day closer now - beneath the bleeding sky

This bliss is fragile
Life is at stake - but no one is bothered

Another day will dawn upon the ones who feel this tension
This fear will feed us all until we choke on this intimidation

Hold your breath - now it's divine
Trapped in a sickening dance

The sky will fall upon us all
This will make you bleed
And mourn what you lose
Curse that you are left all alone

Still inside the storm
Watch you try to heal - it's fragile
One day closer now - beneath the bleeding sky
We fall together
