

Divine Blindness

Desultory

We feed the starving minds
Make them run in circles
All imploding now - decay and dissolution

Empty eyes reflects a twisted shape of innocence
We drown in doubt together devouring humiliation

Breeding life - in denial
Crucifixion of the soul
To stop this bleeding deep inside

Turn away - when it falls apart

Starving mind - race in circles
Drown in doubt - devouring humiliation
This blissful ignorance will bring us comfort

Turn your face away

When they fall you turn away
This blindness will bring us peace
But no one will come for you
To stop your bleeding

This blindness will be your fall
The guilt will devour us all

Strive through a new beginning
Overwhelming -
This weight becomes your curse

Reach down - Unfold

Breeding life - in denial
Crucifixion of the soul
To stop this bleeding deep inside
