

In This Embrace

Desultory

A twisted turn, a painful warp of life
A burning pain, the emptiness unveil
Closer - step by step and day by day
Father - out of reach it slips away

The panic comes alive
It all becomes unreal
Can't hide, can't shut down,
Dragged through this void of despair

A crippled dream, a broken soul remain
A downward spiral - will take you down
Closer - step by step and day by day
Father - out of reach it slips away

Sickening - a breath away
Brace yourself for a new day

Can't see through the shadows
Can't find the way to go
A fragile hope is trembling
Dragged through this void of despair

The ashes of what remains

With trembling hands I move away
Loosing grip yet once again

Something is closing in
Helpless in this embrace

Helpless in this embrace
The ashes of what remains

With trembling hands I move away
Loosing grip yet once again
I'm cut wide open
I'm cut wide open

With trembling hands I move away
Loosing grip yet once again
I'm cut wide open
I'm cut wide open
