

Spineless Kingdom

Desultory

Breed this chaos - like swarming flies
Praise the blindness - born without eyes

Smell the breath of all these demons
Taste the madness in your mouth
The stench of all this slavery
Doomed to fail and to expire

Inside the spineless kingdom they come to bleed

Breed this chaos - like swarming flies
Inside the spineless kingdom the crippled will shine
Praise the blindness - born without eyes
Inside the mass of madness the chaos will rise

Watch the saint become the martyr
Forsaken, crippled and betrayed,
Behold this blessing
Enlightened by the other side

Feast of the helpless
On this altar of shame
Nameless forgotten belief
Grows weaker and weaker

To receive this unholy blessing
By the paralyzed ones
Once again a pathetic judgment
That cannot be undone

Inside the spineless kingdom the crippled will shine

Feast of the helpless
On this altar of shame
Nameless forgotten belief
Grows weaker and weaker
