World On Fire

Deuce

This world is on fire
This world is on fire

This world is on fire
We're restless and we're tired
Is there someplace other than this?
Maybe somewhere higher
I don't hear no choir
All I see are liars
Is there someplace other than this?
Maybe somewhere higher

It's hard to make it in a world wasted
All this hatred, I'm impatient
All these changes, different places
Looking sacred, got the aces
Lot of faces, no hope of facing
Across the nation, who can make it?
Yeah, we're racing, I can taste it
Who can change it, it's the Matrix

Everything has its turn
After all we've learned
What is it we've earned?
Just to watch it burn

This world is on fire
We're restless and we're tired
Is there someplace other than this?
Maybe somewhere higher
I don't hear no choir
All I see are liars
Is there someplace other than this?
Maybe somewhere higher

Empires falling, help is calling
Don't we all win, we keep crawling
There ain't no sin that we'll fall in
It looks so dim, but we're all in
Through the cold wind, we can see end
We ain't leaving, but we believe in
If it's freezing, ain't no reason
We're still breathing instead of screaming

Everything has its turn
After all we've learned
What is it we've earned?
Just to watch it burn
This world is on fire
We're restless and we're tired
Is there someplace other than this?
Maybe somewhere higher
I don't hear no choir
All I see are liars
Is there someplace other than this?
Maybe somewhere higher

Above the carnage, we couldn't stop it
Where we started, it was promised
All departed, almost lost it
It was started through the hardship
Was abolished, but accomplished
It was rotted with the farthest
But demolished, wasn't gone yet
Nothing got in, forgive our sins

Everything has its turn
After all we've learned
What is it we've earned?
Just to watch it burn

This world is on fire
We're restless and we're tired
Is there someplace other than this?
Maybe somewhere higher
I don't hear no choir
All I see are liars
Is there someplace other than this?
Maybe somewhere higher

Maybe somewhere higher
Maybe somewhere higher
