

This Face Has Worked Against Me

Devics

Blue eyes don't help losing skies
Even I know it's better to be alone
Blue eye's don't help
When no one looks at them
I know that I shouldn't go but it's better for me to be alone
Blue eye's don't help
When the face works against them
So stay alone and don't let anyone in
Cause that's the best way not to hurt
I'm not here to get to know you
I know well we'll go our own way
Blue eyes don't help when no one looks at them
I know that I shouldn't go but it's better for me to be alone
Make me leave
Before we start to like feeling this way
