

It Was Raining

Devil Doll

It was raining the day you left me
Did you think of me when you left
Here I stand alone and waiting
For lightning to strike me twice in my life
And you know when there's no one left here
To hold your hand dear
And then you slowly walk away

It's been raining since the day you left me
Can't get dry since you lied to me
Tried to drown but I just kept comin'
Up for air I can't seem to die don't know why
And it hurts so bad I can taste you
Can't escape you
I feel you everywhere I go

It's been raining...