

Break the Ties

Devil You Know

To the end of the earth we run
Blistering from the rising sun
And we know that we don't belong
Where did we take a turn so wrong

I've laid it all on the altar
I've stumble but never falter

Forever bound
Break the ties

We're so much more than sacrificial lambs, look past the sky
I'll never run, run from you again
I'll never run, run again

The end of the world has begun
Our fortress has it come undone
This is everything that we chose
All we are and all that we oppose

A valley carved right between us
Climb the mountain, but can we fix this

Forever bound
Break the ties

We're so much more than sacrificial lambs, look past the sky
I'll never run, run from you again
I'll never run, run again

Once more we offer ourselves
We know we don't belong
Where did I go wrong

Let's break the ties
We're so much more than sacrificial lambs

Break the ties

We're so much more than sacrificial lambs, look past the sky
I'll never run, run from you again
I'll never run, run again
