

Consume the Damned

Devil You Know

Bound to seduction, the bitter God that failed
I gave my hopes and dreams to no avail
Seek and never find, emptiness lies ahead
Fascination upon the other side, so speaks the dead
I'm living on borrowed time and I've been left behind

You have it all, all that I want
And I will claim it as my own

For you I will consume the damned
For you I will renounce the damned
Renounce the damned

I'm dying, there is no time
A corpse is all that's left
Cast out for you to find

You have it all, all that I want
And I will claim it as my own

For you I will consume the damned
For you I will renounce the damned
Renounce the damned
Renounce the damned

For you I will consume the damned
For you I will renounce the damned
Life slips through my fingers like sand
For you I will renounce the damned

You have it all, all that I want
And I will claim it as my own

Seek and never find
You have it all
Emptiness lies ahead
All that I want
Fascination
And I will claim it as my own
So speaks the damned

For you I will consume the damned
For you I will renounce the damned
Life slips through my fingers like sand
For you I will renounce the damned
