

Let The Pain Take Hold

Devil You Know

Hidden in plain sight
Did all I can do
Watching you lose the fight
Will you stay alive?
I am no savior but I will Take all of the weight that you carry
If you will let go
Will the past become buried in time?

Overcome with the sense of destruction
Overcome with the lack of emotion

Gave up the fight to live
But the season will pass
Letting the pain take hold
And I know we can reach for the light
Gave up the fight...

Timing is never right
Fear will ruin you
Wake from the endless night
Open up your eyes

Gave up the fight to live
But the season will pass
Letting the pain take hold
And I know we can reach for the light
Gave up the fight...
Will you leave us with nothing?
The past buried in time
Buried in time

Overcome with the sense of destruction
Overcome with the lack of emotion

Gave up the fight to live
But the season will pass
Letting the pain take hold
And I know we can reach for the light
Gave up the fight
(But the season will pass)
Gave up the fight
(And I know we can reach for the light)
Gave up the fight
